Dated: 30.03.2021

NOTICE

As you all are aware that University is going to start the End Semester Examination for 1st year BTech and BArch (2020 admitted Batch) from 31st March, 2021 in an offline mode. University is strictly following the guidelines issued by the Government time to time and is taking utmost care for smooth and safe conduct of Examinations.

Exams have been staggered in four different shifts and in different Academic Blocks to avoid the assembly of large number of students at one place. Students will be allowed to enter in the University campus only after proper thermal temperature check at the Gate.

Students are also advised to maintain the social distance and to avoid any discussion/contact with fellow students in a group. They are advised to wear good quality mask all the time. They should bring their own water bottle and should sanitize themselves again and again to reduce the risk of getting infected. Any student violating these norms will not be allowed to appear in the examinations.

The students falling in containment zone or in isolation due to Covid or having any other genuine reason are exempted for appearing in the ensuing examination for the time being. The offline examination for such students will be conducted by the University at the later date. However, such Students will require to submit the supporting documents to the concerned HoDs well in time.

Wish you all the best for your exams.
