ORGANIZER: Huumanoid- The HR society of IGDTUW

DATE: 22nd February, 2024

NAMES OF STUDENT COORDINATORS: Baljeet Kaur Bhutani, Raveena Sharma, Yasha Parakh

FACULTY COORDINATOR: Miss Kalpana Sharma

PARTICIPANTS: BBA and MBA Students

OBJECTIVE: The objective of conducting a session on "HR challenges that people face in today’s world" was to provide students with an in-depth understanding of the current human resources challenges encountered by individuals. This session aimed to raise awareness by discussing major HR challenges and how to prevent them and to stay updated. Also, this session promoted solutions-oriented thinking which encouraged participants to adopt a proactive and problem-solving mindset through HR challenges.

MODE: Virtual-Google meet

EVENT SUMMARY:

The session was conducted by Miss Akshita Shrivastava, who brought to the table a wealth of expertise in the fields of Human Resources and Training & Development. With 9 years of invaluable experience, she has had the privilege of working in renowned international healthcare, E-commerce, and F&B industries. Currently, she is proudly serving as the HR Manager at Finovate Consulting Pvt Ltd.

With the help of a PowerPoint Presentation, made by our society according to our understanding, she covered major challenges one might face as an employer as well as an employee as well. Topics like Talent acquisition & Recruitment, Employee engagement, Compensation and benefits, were covered. Miss Shrivastava helped management students to understand the issue in each department with the help of personal experience as an HR head and real-life examples which made the session interactive.

This session concluded with a piece of advice that Miss Akshita provided to our management students concerning their career in HR and how they can grow in field of the same.

As a token of Appreciation, E-certificate will be shared by Miss Akshita through the official E-mail ID of Huumanoid.
