

SPIC MACAY

SPIC MACAY refers to Society for Promotion of Indian Classical Music and Culture amongst the youth. Founded in 1977, it is a non-profit voluntary, non-political and participatory student movement. It aims to promote an awareness of the rich cultural tapestry of India among the youth through focus on classical arts.

The 6th edition of SPIC MACAY was held at IGDTUW on 24th September, 2018. A Manipuri dance recital was held as a part of the event. Eminent personalities – Rajkumar Singhajit Singh Ji and Charu Sija Mathur Ji, who have won multiple laurels such as the ‘Padma Shree’, ‘Sangeetnatak Academy Award’ and many others, graced us with their presence and showcased a mesmerizing performance which left the audience spell bounded.

The recital started with a short introduction of the artists, lamp lighting ceremony and presentation of Bamboo plants, the recital began. Apart from the two main artists, the accompanists – Jagannath Ghosal on flute, Pradeep Singh and Sharad Singh on drums and Laxmi Devi for dance also managed to captivate the audience with their performances. All in all the event was a success and was much appreciated by the faculty as well as the students.

1. Number of Students – 300 approx
2. Name of Students Coordinator – Ms. Neha Lilani
3. Email id of student coordinator – neha.lilani@gmail.com

